

LIST OF TABLES

Table I. Shows the approximate average number of reports accumulated per event for each subcategory. The average was calculated by summing the number of reports associated with each subcategory and dividing by the number of events in each subcategory.